FAQs

How do the Academy clinics work? The academy will schedule dozens of half-hour clinics each week. Members can sign-up for as many clinics as desired and receive first priority before non-member sign-ups take place.

How do I sign-up for private lessons? Members can sign-up for private lessons through the World of Baseball staff. Alternatively, members can contract directly with the instructor., who then handles facility scheduling and billing/payment.

How does the first month's benefits and billing work if I sign-up mid-month? You pay the full monthly fee upon sign-up. Choose whether your start month is the current month or the following month. Free clinics and monthly retail voucher benefits begin in your designated start month. All other benefits begin immediately upon sign-up.

What if I do not want to leave my credit card on file? You can pay by cash or check, but your first payment must be for the entire three month minimum sign-up period.

Can I place my membership on hold for a month? No, but you can change your membership to the less expensive Minor League Package.

Is there a minimum purchase amount before I can use my retail voucher? No.

Can I accumulate retail vouchers over several months? No, vouchers must be used in the month granted.

Can I get change back from my voucher? No, you must use the entire voucher or lose any remaining value.
